The senate campaign funds committee listened today to the story of how Edwin C. Jameson, New York capi LABOR HEAD SEES talist, gave $65,300 to Bishop James Cannon Jr., as head of the anti-Smith democratic committee in the 1928 campaign and to the report of its expert, Basil Manly, of what happened most of that sum.

The records showed Bishop/ Cannon opened six new banking accounts during the campaign, and from one of these in which he put more than $68,000 in "political funds" he withdrew on his own checks $28,278.

The New York advices were to the effect that a $300,000,000 credit has been arranged through the banking firm of Morgan & Company. The Paris messages said Finance Minister Flandin and British officials in Paris had spent the entire day conferring on additional credits to belster the pound sterling and check the flow of gold from London to the French capital.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(P)—
An estimate that the unemployment total will reach 7,000,000 this winter came today from President William Green, of the American Federation of Labor, as Walter S. Gifford, national relief director, went ahead with plans to prevent distress.

Green said August had seen a slight gain in employment, but that this was only a seasonal improvement which could "not lessen our winter problem." He estimated there were 5,100,000 jobless on August I.

"Even allowing for the temporary fall gain in employment," he said, "we will have some 2,000,000 more to provide for in addition to the five milition now out of work." The new credit is expected to b would be cut to $100,000, Gaines said.

Board Meeting Planned.

A meeting of the school board will be held in the next few days to lay plans for pushing the campaign in favor of the proposed elimination of the 25 per cent water rate discount, the increased water funds to go to-the schools if the people vote for the increase in a referendum to be called for October, Gaines announced. Emergency finance matters of the schools will be considered at the board meeting, he added.

Comptroller West Thursday estimated the city's deficit for this year at $1,076,894.42, based on continued operation of the schools of Atlanta.

seven well-attended meetings of farmers, bankers and businessmen, in as many Georgia county seats, were on record Friday favoring the Huey P. Long cotton prohibition plan for 1932. Meanwhile Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, waited in Washington for senatorial representatives ments, as was done last year. Such a procedure will increase the book deficit of the city, but it will give us an advance of cash when we most need it."

Sees Saving of $190,000.

Mayor Key expressed belief that the city can save $100,000 between now and the first of the year out of funds apportioned to city departments, by means of strict economy. Assurances that all bills will be met promptly through the September 1 loan will enable the city to obtain better prices, he pointed out.

W.W. Gaines, president of the Atlanta board of education, Thursday night said that operation of the schools to January 1 will cost $1,460,000, and the board has on hand $580,463 against that expense, leaving the school's financial needs at $870,000. Fifteen thousand dollars of this sum will be proyided, however, when the side of the city and the other prominent pioneer families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and for many years a ranking figure in banking circles of families, and kactor Selected for the will submit to the farm board that farmers be paid 12 cents a pound for their cotton, half of it to be paid immediately and the other half for it to be paid immediately and the other half for it to be paid immediately and the other half for it to be paid immediately and the other half for it to be paid in the result for the view exercited in the will submit to the farmshould families in the stat Senator George has a plan he says

In signing the bill, obtain two boards of which his father, Chief Justice Richard B. Russell, of the supreme court, is a member. These are the boards of the University of Georgia and the State College for Women at Milledgeville.

Governor Russell Thursday approved a reduction of his own term when he signed a senate resolution proposing a constitutional amendment for inauguration of the governor in January, 1933, and biennially thereafter. A 10-day session of the general assembly would be held in January, and the regular 60-day session would begin in July.

Governor Russell has received the 1332-1933 general appropriations bill, but has not signed it yet.

Under the law, the time for the governor for public printing as provided by the form of the general assembly o

It rejoices me, as an elder citizen, to recognize these progressive signs of our times. I have faith to believe that nortality tables in a few years now Georgia will be in the hands of a virile younger generation that is not afraid of itself!

For fifty years past the state has been in the control of men who feared distant when some villagers will fly to the towns just to sit among the traffic and enjoy a little peace and quiet.

Comes actionable every 21 years.

So that it may be taken as a fact that the majority of 1910 has now faded into a small minority. The rear rank of the present reigning majority was born in that year. Those who were then becoming eligible voters and yet survive are now around 42 years of age and form the strength of those whose voices rule the nation.

The natural results followed. The checker-board of non-self-supporting counties. High local taxes have drained to desert their birthplaces. With the interpolation has some decrease of population has some decrease of wealth, entailing yet higher taxes, until the whole state stagnated to the present reigning majority was born in that year. Those who were then becoming eligible voters and yet survive are now around 42 years of age and form the strength of those whose voices rule the nation.

A Foundation for Fame. Plenty of evidence has come to me y conversation and correspondence by conversation and corresponds that the younger Georgians who are forging to the front are justly dissatisfied with those conditions and are sternly eager to correct them. To such virtuous spirits there is one piece of advice that I am giving them individually, but it is good for its virtues and its vices. Every state ought to be constitutionally governed as the American system demands, but Georgia has not been so governed as she should have been. Many acts have been done contrary to the constitution and many things of value com-manded by the constitution have been left undone. And to those defiant or negligent treatments of the constitu-tion can be traced some of the most glaring ills suffered by the state.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(P)—
Russell Boardman and John Polando, New York to Istanbul fliers, learned today they would not have to pay duty on their diamond badges and a customs officer learned he had done a lot of trailing in vain.

On their arrival Monday the airmen were wearing the badges, gifts of the Turkish Aviation League.
Customs Inspector James V. McCabe, determined not to let the jewels out of his sight, trailed the fliers through a round of receptions until he finally got them to sign a document certifying their possession.

Now customs officials have ruled

When they came to him, together, he looked long and earnestly at both pale faces, but he could see nothing but anxiety for him in both. Both yearned to him. They clung to his hand.

"I want . . . my girl." said Henry. He looked at her fondly.

"Father, father!" She was put to it not to weep.

"Sam talked of his trip, of the places he had seen, the people he had met. He narrated amusing little adventures and misadventures, such as befall all travelers. Then had come her cable. Trains and ships being too slow, he had employed planes whenever possible, until he caught the ship that was to bring him home. From New York he again employed a plane.

"It must have been dreadfully hard on you," Sally said.

"Father is never anything but kind. That . . . that's what hurts." Her voice shook, there were tears in her eyes.

Joe Dixon had already told him how devoted Henry was to her, how constantly she had been with him. He turned his head now, and watched her curiously.

"I have learned a great deal since-I came to Winsteads, Sam," she replied slowly.

Superintendent Sutton cited four major reasons for the depression—reckless and extravagant use of fast dwindling natural resources; racial prejudices and an unwise tariff; a relative decrease in population causing a decrease in markets; a failure to masses of people.

E. D. Sledge and Abit Nix. Athens, welcomed the delegates to the sixth annual convention of the league. Scott Candler, Decatur, responded.

Material growth in building and loan work during the past 12 months despite the depression was noted in reports to the convention.

Speakers at the afternoon session today included John E. Wilson, secretary of state: M. C. Bennett, chief examiner of the Georgia securities commission: J. E. Bodenhamer, Decatur, and T. A. Lamar. Rome.

BROKEN BY ARRESTS

LAGRANGE, Ga., Aug. 27.—What was said by county officers to be a "corn stealing ring" operating around Pleasant Grove was believed broken up with the sentencing of John Williams, 20-year-old negro, to six months on the chain gang for simple larceny and the jailing of two more negroes on the same charge. A fourth negro is held in jail.

Farmers in the vicinity of Pleasant Grove had complained of losing many bushels of corn. Williams was arrested when he jumped from his car and ran, leaving two bushels of corn behind. He incriminated Jim Gray and Aron Truitt, who are being held for city court.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be dis-cussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution. DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

I notice a great many girls ask you about their sweethearts who profess to love them but who keep them in suspense. Some day they will look back as I now do, and "What a fool I was." For six months he came to see me regularly and then his work called him out of town. Five long years, and six months on top of that, we were engaged. I loved him with all my heart and he pretended to love me the same way. He sent me beautiful presents, including an engagement ring, and came to visit me occasionally. His excuse for delaying marriage was that he wanted to be promoted first. He was, and when he was, he married not me, but another woman. All the while he kept up the correspondence and the love making. Then one day came a letter saying that he was married. He has sent me a message recently that he still loves me and wanted to see me. I would like to see him just for one purpose—to tell him what a contemptible person he is. Would you advise an interview? ANSWER:

ANSWER:

This letter contains a fine lesson that many a girl should learn by heart. It is also a categorical answer to questions that pour in, world without end. There is one pathetic note in it. "Would you advise an interview?" Even the woman who has learned her bitter lesson that a sence doesn't make the heart of a lover grow fonder but rather colder, wants to go back to be sure that the old flame is not completely extinguished. She hopes it isn't. She believes it isn't and she wants to see for herself. There are a few things in this life that can be reheated or warmed-over successfully. Love is not one of them. An interview could accomplish nothing. Why have it?

It's not hard for a woman to tell when a man loves her. It's hard for er to admit it to herself that he doesn't when she loves him. It's not hard to discover if a man is in earnest about marriage. The discovery is some-times an overwhelming disappointment, one that she doesn't want to face. So she temporizes, thinking to herself that she will be able to bring him around to a better mind. If he doesn't arrive of his own accord her effort is hope-

It's doubtful if this port of talk does any good. One may master the textbooks on chemistry and be ignorant of practical chemistry unless he has worked out his theories in the laboratory. One may study French in school and master the grammar but he cannot speak good French until he has spoken it with the native. Girls, this is a simple primer lesson and if you will learn it some day you may use it practically. But will you?

Your first bid shows about 4 tricks (in honors and low cards). Any one-bid is a contract to make 7 tricks. There are 13 tricks at any bid and your partner's shage is about 3 tricks (in honors and low cards)—the number which you temporarily assume (average expectancy) until better information is available. Hence you must have 4 tricks to undertake a contract of one.

Your Rebids must be so adjusted that should you find the minimum hand, your loss would not be greater than the point value of the game.

For instance, with 7 tricks you can bid up to four-odd not vulnerable; but vulnerable only up to three-odd.

Troublesome Pirates Hold Chicago Even in Double-Header; Erie Academy Eleven To Fly Here for Game With Smithies

ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 28, 1931.

PIRATES SPLIT WITH CHICAGO: LEADERS IDLE

Wes Ferrell Stars by Letting Browns Down

By L. S. Cameron,

United Press Sports Editor. NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(UP)— Pittsburgh's Pirates, one of the five teams which started the season as rec-ognized contenders for the National league pennant, now have hopes of not dng better than top place in the second division, but they still are causing trouble for their more fortunate rivals.

The Pirates, still one game out of fifth place, held the third-place Chicago Cubs to an even break in a double-header today and prevented the Chicagoans from gaining ground on the three remaining first division clubs, all of which were idle. HOW IT HAPPENED.

How IT HAPPENED.

Four-hit pitching by Glenn Spencer and a triple by Tommy Thevenow gave the Pirates the opening game, 3 to 2. The Cubs made the most of their four hits, while Pittsburgh's 10 blows off Sweetland were scattered except in the fourth when Thevenow tripled with two mates on base and scored on an outfield fly.

Ervin Brame appeared in a fair way to duplicate Spencer's triumph in the second game, but he weakened in the eighth and the Cubs pounded him and his successor, Osborne, for eight runs to clinch the contest, 11 to 4.

Spinkey Whitney's home run in the eighth inning broke a five-all tie and gave Philadelphia a 6-to-5 victory over Cincinnati in the only other National league contest of the day. The Phils got away to an early lead with three runs in the first inning, but Cincinnati took the lead by scoring two in the fifth and three in the sixth.

HOMER HELPS.

Philadelphia tied the score in the seventh and the homer by Whitney, first up in the eighth, gave them the game when Elliott, third Phillies' pitcher, held the Reds scoreless for the final two innings.

Only two games were scheduled in the American league, with Detroit dethe American league, with Detroit de-feating Chicago, 9 to 4, and Cleveland pounding out a 11-to-1 triumph over St. Louis.

Wes Ferrell, Cleveland's no-hit ace, turned in one of his best performances since his hitless contest in holding the Browns to four hits. He coasted to victory after his mates drove in six runs in the second and three in the third.

Detroit clinched its game with Chicago with five runs in the first two innings, and Vic Sorrell won easily, although he allowed the Sox 11 hits. The Tigers meanwhile collected 13 safeties off five Chicago twirlers.

It seems that a few gentlemen of the press have had the merry coach of the Bulldogs participating in the golf tournament at Radium Springs. Consequently Harry has had to answer a lot of silly questions from persons wanting to know why he was back in Athens so soon. Coach Mehre terjohn, of Paducah, Ky., won a shoot-off from F. C. NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(UP)— with the late Tex Rickard's imagination and showmanship, but it also lacks a promoter with the proverbial "Rickard weather luck."
Boxing not only lacks a promotor

Rickard, in case you have forgot-ten, was almost as famous for his record of never having an important bout postponed on account of bad weather, as he was for his success in drawing million-dollar gates.

Since Rickard's death the weather man has deserted professional boxing and of late no promoter thinks of set-ting a date for a show, without also making arrangements for a second date, "in case of rain."

nas been demonstrated this week, with rain and threatening weather causing a postponement of the Giacomo Bergomas-Pietro Corri bout at Dexter Park on Monday, the Charley Retar laff-Joe Sekyra bout at Queensboro stadium Tuesday, and the Victorio Campolo-Ernie Schaaf bout at Ebbets field, Brooklyn, last night.

40 go. Babe Ruth is still involved in two arguments. One is his homerun charge against Gehrig and Klein, and the other his batting duel with Al Simmons, who is a notch or two ahead.

This isn't all. Bob Grove still has a chance to set an all-time percentage record, and possibly to reach thirty victories before the last putous is recorded.

Then there is Chapman, the Schmeling's world's championship.

The Campolo-Schaaf bout will establish the winner as a serious contender for honors. With Schaaf having agreed to meet Tommy Loughtan in event he wins and Campolo due to tangle with Retzlaff if he gets by Schaaf, the survivor will be in a fair way to fight his way into a bout with Schmeling.

This Comeback Furore.

"Why," writes an indignant fight fan, "don't you start a campaign against this comeback stuff of Dempsey and Leoanard?"

For several reasons. One is that it tappens to be their business, not mine. Another is that it seems to have stirred up at least a fair amount of interest and excitement, and there is no law forcing any fight fan to attend their revivals.

The fact that Dempsey drew out 17,000 paid admissions in

The Winning Gift.

Take for yourself the gift of the gods,
But give me courage;

Give me the heart that knows no odds-Yes, give me courage. Reach for the laurel that rules the game, Wealth, position, the crowd's acclaim, For the great white spotlight's blinding flame, But give me courage.

Ask your gods for wealth or a throne, But give me courage; The soul to face red fate alone, Yes, give me courage; Shadows of sorrow hide the shore, The weaker stumble to rise no more, But life and death fall back before The charge of courage.

Now Man and Man.

When the Cubs inserted a pair of poisoned harpoons in the Giants at their final double-header, the two pennant races turned abruptly into a matter of individual stardom, with the Athletics and Cardinals having all the time they need to get ready for the big series.

The Crackers batted three Little Rock pitchers hard to win the first game but the second was a fine duel between Tex Nugent and Andy Messenger.

The importance of this precaution to go. Babe Ruth is still involved in two arguments. One is his home-laff-Joe Sekyra bout at Queensboro stadium Tuesday, and the Victorio Campolo-Ernie Schaaf bout at Ebbets field, Brooklyn, last night.

Apparently the weather man either has a grudge against the young heavyweights who were billed to appear, or foresees poor contests, for in each instance the skies cleared immediately after the postponements of the bouts and the evenings have been ideal for outdoor attractions.

An early light rain resulted in the postponement of Promoter Jimmy Johnston's Campolo-Schaaf show, which now is scheduled for Monday at Ebbets field.

The shows are expected to clarify the situation among the second rank of heavyweight contenders. Three of the principals, Campolo, Schaaf and Retzlaff, are crowding Jack Sharkey and Tommy Loughran for honors as the ranking contender for Max Schmeling's world's championship.

The Campolo-Schaaf bout will establish the winner as a serious contender for honors. With Schaaf haven the stablish the winner as a serious contender for honors. With Schaaf haven and the second rank in the records. There have a man age when hase-running was supposed to be among the discards and hardly worth the time.

Chapman's speed brings up the argument as to the fastest man that ever played big league baseball. For one entry you can name Wilson Collins, who once played with the Braves. Collins had done 94-5 on the track before turning to baseball, and this is about as fast as any big league ball player ever traveled. There may be another big leaguer who cracked 10 flat for the hundred, but his name isn't in the records. Chapman is about as fast in spiked shoes and a baseball unifo, n as anyone who ever pilefered a base.

Sixth Cavalry Four Plays Fort Sunday

Fort Oglethorpe's stellar polo squad, the Sixth cavalry, will invade Atlanta Sunday afternoon for another of the series of clashes with Fort McPherson, local authorities announced Thursday. The game will be played on the local post field.

Colonel Gordon Johnson, Lieutenant Z. Moores, Captain Thomas Herrin and Lieutenant J. Wood will make up the Sixth cavalry quartet, while Major R. H. Howell, Captain Albert Wing, Lieutenant William Biddle and Lieutenant J. J. Baker will form the McPherson team.

Ot Interest and excitement, and there is no law forcing any fight fan to attend their revivals.

The fact that Dempsey drew out 17,000 paid admissions in Seattle and that Kearns has received more offers for Leonard's appearance than he ever had for any other fighter seems to indicate that the two comeback delegates are not walking into solitudes or empty halls.

The comeback idea always has its human appeal for the simple reason hat everybody likes to feel that, having slipped, there is still a road back to the top. The interest shown in these two old-timers is also fair proof of how little real fighting most of the modern entries have offered the public for the change taken in.

At the same time it is a great tribute to Harry Mehre, who has made his football teams so interesting and successful that people come out to see them in great throngs. The success of the teams has enabled the athletic association officials to schedule games with teams in California and in other sections who do not ordinarily play southern teams.

Mr. Mehre and his men stick their chins out each Saturday. And the fact that they have protected them so well is an adequate explanation of why the Georgia football teams have been gate attractions. Winning teams are not always colorful teams Radium Springs.

ALBANY, Ga., Aug. 27.—(49)—
The elimination of the medalist, Forrest Adair, of Atlanta, by Billy Oliver, of Valdosta, and some spectacular shooting by Horace Wright, of Macon, featured the first-round match play in the fifth annual Radium Springs golf tournament here today, Oliver conquered Adair, whose 74 was low yesterday in the 18-hole qualifying round, by a decisive 5 and 4 count. Oliver, one of the renoval golfing Oliver family of Valdosta and brother of the 1929 state amateur champion, barely qualified yesterday.

Wright scored a 5 and 3 victory over J. D. Weston, of Albany, and continued his round to the club house where he posted a sub-par round of 70, two strokes less than standard figures.

Jim Warren, of Tampa, Fla., runner-up in 1930, also advanced into the second round by eliminating Dr., Blue Harris, of Montgomery, 3 up.

Dean Smith, of Savannah, second to Charlie Yates in the 1931 Georgia amateur championship, and one of the favorites to win this tournament, downed Dan Sage Jr., of Atlanta, 3 and 2.

duce a man who can kick with the uneanny accuracy of the 1931 All-American.

There is one outstanding characteristic in most Notre Dame men that one soon distinguishes. It is their adeptness at making a complete and clear analysis of teams and individuals. For instance, Harry Mehre is a Notre Dame man and all that, but he said that if his alma mater and Wallace Wade's Alabama machine had been matched last year, the Crimson clad southerners would have made it very tough indeed for his old school.

THE DIFFERENCE.

"Carideo would just about have been the difference in that game, had it been played." Harry opines. "He wasn't much at carrying the ball, in fact he was no ball carrier at all. But boy, how he could kick."

One finds Harry Mehre decidedly and Ted Twomey, his new assistants. And Enright, who already is on the scene, is very happy to be down south. He learned to like it while at North Carolina. In fact one finds that most of the Notre Dame boys liked coaching down here.

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 27.
(P)—Mrs. George Tyson, of Kansas City, lost her prized western women's golf championship today in an exciting quarter-final duel to her home town jinx, Mrs. O. S. Hill.

All square at the end of 17 holes, Mrs. Hill ended the tussle on the final green by sinking an eight-foot putt for a birdie four. Mrs. Tyson, 10 feet away from the cup with three shots, missed her try for a birdie down a side-hill route by three feet, but Mrs. Hill dropped hers for the hole and the match.

What the Market Did.

Tone of the Markets.

NEW YORK,
Stocks: Heavy,
Bonda: Irregular,
Curh: Easy,
Cotton: Lower,
Hogs: Steady, BY JOHN L. COOLEY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27-(A)-A better tope in bonds, in the face of rather heavy tendencies elsewhere, was an encouraging development in the an encouraging development in the financial markets today.

Stocks tried to rally a little around midday, but the list eased off again in the late trading, closing with a preponderance of narrow declines. Grains and cotton also sagged.

The bond market was quiet, and no impressive investment demand appeared, but the lifting of pressure was apparent.

ed, but the lifting of pressure was apparent.

Although call money had remained pegged at 11-2 per cent officially since last May, it has been perceptibly ensier in the outside market this week, with offerings today as low as 1 per cent. Some light on this was shed, by the weekly federal reserve statements, showing that the system was once more injecting credit into the open market, largely through purchases of bankers acceptances. Total federal reserve credit outstanding increased $55,000,000 during the week.

Foreign bank deposits with the federal reserve again increased, by roughly $14,500,000, which may indicate further liquidation of commercial credits here by the Bank of France. Brokers loans showed the small gain of $6,000,000.

credits here by the Bank of France.
Brokers' loans showed the small gain of $6,000,000.

Wall Street remained largely preoccupied with the international financial situation. News of a conference with President Hoover of officials of three large Wall Street banks with important foreign connections aroused considerable interest. The private banking credit to Great Britain was believed to be all completed but the signing of the papers.

Developments in the Standards of New Jersey and California merger, as well as further gains in crude oil and gasoline prices, had little effect on the oil shares.

The net loss shown by the price average of 90 representative stocks was only 6-10 of 1 point. The turnover of approximately $00,000 shares showed little change from recent sessions. Among a few issues losing 2 to 3 points were Allied Chemical, Air Reduction, Eastman and Case, United States Steel, Westinghouse and New York Central lost about a point.

In foreign exchanges, sterling reacted slightly after yesterday's ndvance, ruling at $4.86 3-16, off 1-16. In commodities, cotton lost 50 to 75 cents a bale, sagging in the late trading in sympathy with the stock market. Wheat lost 5-8 to 7-8 of a cent a bushel. Corn lost 3-8 to 11-8 cents.

December contracts, after selling off from 7.40 to 7.22, rallied to 7.33 and closed at 7.23. The final tone of the market was barely steady at net declines of 10 to 15 points.

The opening was steady, 3 to 5 points higher in response to overnight buying orders. The demand was limited, however, while there was considerable New Orleans selling here, and prices broke quite sharply during the early trading. October sold off from 7.20 to 7.50, making net losses of about 11 to 16 points on the active positions.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 .- (AP)-Heavy Russian shipments of wheat chilled the enthusiasm of buyers, both here and abroad, today and prices averrepublic this week were 5,800,000 bushels, the largest total of the season, and brought the August exports so far to around 19,000,000 bushels. advance in Chicago yesterday because of these shipments and Chicago holders of wheat became discouraged and sold. Other grains weakened with sold. Other grains weakened with wheat.

Wheat closed weak 1-2 to 1 cent lower, corn 1-4 to 1 cent down, oats 1-8 to 1-2 off and provisions showed Liverpool made no response to the 7 to 15 cents advance.

Russia was reported to have sold three cargoes of wheat to Japan at 39 cents a bushel, duty free. These will be shipped from the Black sea and the freight rate was said to be 1 cent a bushel.

Coarse grains reacted rather sharply early, but in view of the advances late yesterday prices for both corn and oats held fairly well.

Provisions firmed with hogs and trade was fairly active.

BY ALEXANDER HENDERSON.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 .- (P)-The bond market provided some interesting developments today, although activity decreased sharply. Sales totaled $7,826,000 compared with $9,334,000

Probably the most striking fact was the recovery in rail issues, which was a. general as yesterday, although the net gains were somewhat smaller. The bread h of the upward movement may be realized from the fact that a large and diversified group of rail bonds closed with gains ranging upward to 11-2 points after active trading.

A sharp recovery in Argentine obligations, which extended beyond yesterday's losses in some instances, featured the foreign group. The 51-2s of 1962 jumped 71-4 points, the largest gain of the group, and other advances ranged upward from 1 point.

Treasury 41-4s of 1947-52 featured the United States government issues, which declined irregularly.

Public utility and industrial bonds were quiet.

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(P)—The curb market worked irregularly lower today with oil issues encountering some realizing on their recent advance.

The market remained extremely sluggish, with the turnover shrinking to only 190,000 shares, or 40,000 less than yesterday's.

Selling of the oils was in small volume, and in the face of further advances in crude oil and gasoline prices. Humble and Standard of Kentucky lost about a point, and Indiana sagled fractionally. Gulf was steady.

Cumberland Pipe Line fell back as 1-2 points to 35, on news of a plan to sell its property to the Ashland Refining Company.

Utilities moved narrowly, in the main. American Gas & Electric Bond & Share sagged 1-2 point.

Industrial and specialty issues were thinly traded.

U. S. OIL BUSINESS CLOSES 72D YEAR

CLOSES 72D YEAR

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(A)—Today, the seventy-second anniversary of the petroleum industry in the United States, finds the nation with an available supply of crude oil from all sources sufficient to last 500 years, in the opinion of Ralph Arnold and William J. Kemnitzer, geologists, whose 1,000-page book, "Petroleum," is published today.
From the natural reservoirs, the oil wells, and from oil shales and coal, inow scarcely touched, the ultimate quantity of oil available totals more than 726,000,000,000 barrels of which less than 13,000,000,000 barrels, or less than 13,000,000,000 barrels, or than 726,000,000,000 barrels of which less than 13,000,000,000 barrels, or less than 2 per cent, has been produced to date, the authors say.

"This is a startling revelation." Dr. Kemnitzer said, "and it controverts indisputably the conservation propaganda that has constantly been put forth since the beginning of the industry."

After what seemed an interminable period of time to Jason Gridley, the queer cavalcade emerged from the gloomy forest. Then he saw the never moving sun shimmering upon a broad lake. As they approached, the American beheld about its shores throngs of Horibs. None of them seemed to display the slightest interest in the prisoners brought into their midst. Several of the warrior Horibs dragged Jason and Thoar from their mounts. BUSINESS SERVICE

They were led along the edge of the lake toward a slightly higher bank. Jason was horrified at the thing which happened next. The Horib in charge of Thoar suddenly clapped his fishy hand tightly over his captive's nose and throat. Then he dove head foremost into the water, carrying his victim with him. An instant later, three other Horibs dove in and three Korsars shared a similar fate with Thoar. Now Jason Gridley alone remained.

With a superhuman effort Jason sought to tear himself free from the clutches of his captor. The cold, clammy hands held him tightly. One of them was suddenly clapped over his mouth and nose and an instant later he felt the warm waters of the lake close about him. Still he struggled to free himself as the Horib carried him swiftly beneath the surface. Presently he felt slimy mud be-neath him along which his body was dragged. FINANCIAL

A Brief History of A Great Human Achievement!

A few years ago Theodore Dreiser, champion of the realist movement in American literature, astounded the world of letters by bringing to light a thundering indictment of the American social system, called "An American Tragedy." This novel, which was twice the length of the usual fiction work, displayed a psychological insight into the human mind that was almost uncanny in its thoroughness. It advocated the principle that the human mind in its struggle through life is of finite quality, that it is limited to such a degree by heredity and environment that Man must not be held accountable to his fellowmen for the things world-wide prominence! Shortly thereafter it was dramatized for the stage and presented to overwhelmed audiences. Its sensational success prompted the Paramount-Publix Corporation to acquire the talking picture rights and after much heated controversy with the author, the photo-play, was turned out with infinite fidelity to the original. Since its premiere in New York City only a short time ago "An American Tragedy" has become the most widely discussed phetoplay in the history of the screen! Advance reports from metropolitan centers of the country indicate that it will, without doubt, equal if not exceed, the tremendous attendance results of "The Most of the tremendous attendance results of the tremendous attendance r recerds of "The Birth of a Nation" and

EAT LIGHT AT MEALTIMES DRINK HEARTY BETWEENTIMES TO KEEP YOUR FIGURE TRIM

Going light on heavy meals is not a hardship, unless you're hunger-driven. And mealtime won't find you so ravenous if you drink a bite to eat at 10, 2 and 4 o'clock. The sweetness, and at once the tartness, of Dr. Pepper also reduces temptation to take too many solid sweets . . . that tend to produce overweight. Dr. Pepper is pure, sparkling, deliciously alive and good. Fruit juice, sugar in pre-digested form, plus plenty of water for bulk and to carry away bodily wastes. This leaves no residue for fat. The new energy, instantly available, keeps you fresh and keen. It satisfies the sweet tooth and keeps the figure trim.
